- Looking over Acts from Chapter 1 until 20 when the elders at Ephesus are seeing Paul off on his next mission, what big themes do you see in Acts?
- Paul's life is largely documented in Acts and a big part of how the church learns to be on mission to reach all people with the good news about Jesus. What parts of Paul's life up to this point are inspiring to you? In what ways does his life point you to Jesus?
- This week at Radiant we dropped the news that Caleb Richardson will be transitioning out of Radiant Church Fairbanks to go out and plant a new church in the Matanuska-Susitna Valley (Wasilla/Palmer area). Loren will be stepping up into the position of lead elder.
  - What about this news makes you excited?
  - What about this news makes you afraid/worried/sad?
  - How can you be a part of this mission to spread the kingdom of God right now that we see in Acts and are doing at Radiant?
